

Vocational Education and Training Institutions Eligible to Apply for Erasmus Accreditation 2020/2021

1. Education providers implementing eligible education programmes and activities in the field of VET

Eligible education programmes and activities	Implementing organisations
Initial vocational education and training	VET schools, institutes, centres
Continuing vocational education and training	VET schools, institutes, centres and other providers; professional associations and chambers, stakeholders partnering up with VET providers to provide tailor-made courses

2. Local and regional public authorities, coordination bodies and other organisations with a role in the field of VET

Role in the educational system	Implementing organisations
Establishing and managing VET provider institutions	National authority
Defining and implementing a vocational education and training strategy at any level Employment offices and departments;	National authorities; VET providers
Supervision and quality control of VET provision	Local and regional authorities; inspectorates and specialised institutions in national context
Defining qualification framework, standards and opportunities for continuous professional development educators in VET	National authorities; inspectorates and specialised institutions in national context; professional associations;
Providing career guidance and professional counselling for current and prospective VET learners and recent graduates	Employment Offices
Facilitating traineeships and entering of VET learners, apprentices and recent graduates into the labour market	Chambers of commerce, employment offices and departments, VET centres, coordination bodies
Conducting research to support the development of VET field and to support its continued relevance for the evolving needs of the labour market	University, Colleges research departments, employment offices; social partners.